PROSPEROUS FROM THE START.

The Acme Mills Running Day and Night
and doing a Big Business.

The Acme Mills, which were opened for business about the first of October, at once entered upon an era of unexampled success. From the very start the new plant has done a good business, and about the first of November orders began to come in so rapidly that it was put on and the mills are now running to their full capacity, something over 300 barrels in 24 hours.

A reporter of the KENTUCKIAN called at the mills on the corner of Fourth and Madison street yesterday and found Mr. H. H. DeTreville and Mr. John A. Galbreath, the officers of the company, in fine spirits.

Said Mr. DeTreville, "We are starting out with every encouraging prospect. We have from the start had a good local business and now shipping orders are coming in from all over the South. We are just loading up a car today to fill a Southern order."

These orders come from all directions. We have within the last few days sent shipments into North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee."

"What are your brands?"

"Our best patent is the Eagle. Then we have a standard brand, the Acme, and a family flour, the Omega. These flours are all good, to injure goods from the best mills in the Central States. In fact, our plant is in a position to supply anywhere, being up to date in every respect, with all of the very latest improvements for doing the best work."

"Have you wheat enough to keep you?"

"We have a storage capacity of 40,000 bushels and we bought largely last summer, and are still buying, paying 90 cents a bushel. We are receiving shipments by rail and from wagons every day and expect to run to full capacity throughout the season."

"Do you make meal as well as flour?"

"Well, I should say so. We have the best meal plant in this part of Kentucky and make the finest of pearl meal. We make a speciality of exchange business and our customers can get both flour and meal without waiting. We take their wheat and corn and give them the finished products at once. The old plan of waiting one's turn for hours, or a whole day, is a thing of the past. The customer need not be delayed longer than is necessary to unload and load his wagon."

This feature will no doubt be a great accommodation to the farmers and will be a most popular one when it becomes generally known.

The entire mill plant is lighted by electricity, and it is said that it has its own copper shop and every department is in charge of a skilled and competent man. This new enterprise is already on a firm footing and it will continue to succeed as long as its products are equal to the best and its business affairs are in the hands of its present efficient managers.

New Business House.

Mr. Jake Samuels, proprietor of the Royal Liquor House, inserts a conspicuous ad. in to day's KENTUCKIAN. He is located opposite the First National Bank. His house recently erected by Mr. J. H. Samuels is ready to serve the public. Mr. Samuels has in stock all the best brands of whiskies, such as the famous Old Prentice, Old Oaks, Old Thoroughbred, Ky. Belle of Nelson, Anderson Co., Crystal Springs, Robertson Co., and many other celebrated brands. Besides a complete line of brandies, wines, gins, fine cigars, etc. Besides catering to the retail trade in the quanties from half pint up to a barrel, the house will also do a wholesale business which will be conducted by the drink at all. The proprietor of the establishment is well known to the people of Hopkinsville and Christian county, having lived here for some time, and is an excellent business man and begins business with flattering prospects.

N. Y. Male Quartette To-Morrow Night.

The New York Male Quartette with Miss Nichols, will be at the Opera House to-morrow night, and the remarkable advance made is a sufficient attest to their popularity. The company is composed of Frank J. Corbett, tenor; Harry F. Dean, tenor; Frederick F. Bryan, baritone; Douglas L. Lewis, bass, and Miss Nellie Nichols, reader.

It is sufficient to say that it is the same company that was here twice last year for the Library Association. Every day he heard their wants to hear them again, and those who did not hear them last year should not miss this opportunity.

Miss Nichols is without a superior and the members of the quartet not only sing perfectly together, but each one is a soloist of ability. The company is in the same as last year. The program is the same as last year. The program is new.

Tickets are now on sale at Galbreath's

Vanceburg's electric lights are about ready to turn on.

Prior to that time all of the pins will have been sliced and but little delay will occur in the distribution.

Mr. W. E. Ragsdale, who has been at Asheville, N. C., for two or three months, is constantly improving. He was a friend this week that he crept into a big room in the dining room of the hotel on the evening of Nov. 3. He was eating his dinner when he received a telegram telling him that the Sixth ward was still Democratic. The yell he gave caused every guest in the room to jump to his feet to inquire what was the matter with the red headed and red hot free silver Democrat from Kentucky.

Mr. Gideon Barnes, of near Wallopin, Trigg county, was found dead in bed last Tuesday morning. He was visiting at the home of Mrs. J. J. Martin, a relative, when he died. The supposition is that he died of paralysis. He was about 45 years old and had been an invalid for several years.

To Sample Copy Readers.

This issue of the KENTUCKIAN will be sent to a large number of persons who are not subscribers, but ought to be. All such are invited to become patrons of the paper. This particular issue is much crowded with advertisements, by reason of the large thanksgiving ad. of W. T. Cooper & Co., The Rocker Store and an insertion of two or three columns of classified ads. which makes an apology necessary for the scarcity of reading matter, but the boom in advertising shows that the business men look upon the KENTUCKIAN as the best medium for reaching the public. The KENTUCKIAN for next year will be better than ever. Two dollars a year. Four months on trial for 50 cents.

—FRIDAY NOV. 16, 1897.—

The Gleason gang of rapists were on trial at Newport this week.
They will be given separate trials.Prof. Clas. Alberti, the prominent Lexington physician, is critically ill
and cannot recover.South Tribble, the young representative elected from Franklin county, and a Democratic candidate for Speaker, is giving a handsome send off in the Frankfort Ledger this week.
He is one of the brightest young men who will be in the next House.Mrs. Emma Walker Herr and Mrs.
Mary Brown Day are rival candidates for Enrolling Clerk of the Senate,
with a strong probability that Mrs.
Mollie C. Bennett, widow of the late Judge Bennett, will also enter the race.The official figures are: Shackelford 187,482, Biley 169,678, Hindman 9,
583, Parker 7,299, Wallace 1,806.
Shackelford lacked only 873 votes of beating the combined vote of Biley and the also-rans. His plurality is 17,804.The recent political revolution brought a good many young men to the front in the Democratic party. In Nelson county Frank E. Daugherty, county judge elect, is only 26 years old, and in Rockcastle R. G. Williams, elected to the same office, is only 27 years of age. The future hope of the Democratic party is in the young men of the State and it is right and just that they should be properly recognized.Major Weaver's first official act was to appoint Editor Robt. W.
Brown, of the Louisville Times, as his private secretary. The place pays $1,500 a year and will not necessitate a surrender of Mr. Brown's position as managing editor of the Times. Bob has never been at heart much of a giving up how and the press boys are all glad to see this touch of prosperity coming his way.There are nine lady candidates for State Librarian. This office is probably made all the more popular with the ladies from the fact that the present Librarian is married since she went into office. The aspirants this time are Mrs. Martin, of Barren; Mrs.
Dixon, of Mercer; Mrs. Pauline Hardin, of Letcher; Miss Leslie Calhoun, of Henderson; Miss Margaret Ingraham, of Madison; Miss Margaret Lewis, of Bourbon; Miss Catcher, of Franklin; and Miss Barnett, of Henry. Miss Caton and Miss Hardin are the leading candidates.According to some of the Hindup papers of Louisville, Tony Carroll—whose single vote defeated Blackburn and who has for two years been an active enemy of the Democratic nominees, working as the head of another political party—is to be one of Mayor Weaver's appointees. If the proposed “harmony” is to end by a betrayal
of the party as well as the new Mayor lets into office, it will be the end of all attempts to harmonize with so called good Democrats. Let this be an object lesson to the Democratic councilmen of Hopkinsville in making their appointments. If we are to have a Democratic administration, go dog-bug, in or out of the party, regular or irregular in use of the secret ballot, should be given any official place. We have several men in offices now, elected as Democrats, who eighteen months ago
signed a Wall street circular calling up all Democrats to follow Jno. G.
Carlsile on the Democratic party and sent thousands of them out under two oral stamps, using a part of the funds that defeated Bryan.
Followers of Carlsile are not Democrats and officials elected by Democratic votes have no right to put such men in office. The counts of 1898 1899 and 1900 are yet to come and one true, tried and loyal 16 to 1
Democrats should be placed on guard in this free silver city. Seal every candidate on the platform with both feet before you even consider his appointment.

Don't understand it, ah! well it is this way every day or so, some one comes in that has been looking for COOPER'S and happened to strike some other house that was represented to them as the place, so we are tired and disgusted with our customers and would-be patrons being fooled in that manner, so hereafter always look for the RED FRONT, the only solid red one in Hopkinsville, and you will strike the house that gives the best values of any in Western Kentucky, in staple and fancy groceries and tin and granate wares--watch the would-be imitators, follow our footsteps. May we ask you to call on us--call on us if you do not want to buy--make your shopping home with us--meet your friends at our store--feel as free with us as though you owned us.

BOSTON'S GREAT PREACHER.

The Rev. J. B. Brady, D. D., Advises His Many Parishioners to Take Payne's Celery Compound.

The Rev. James Boyd Brady, pastor of the People's Temple, in Boston, presides over the destinies of the largest Methodist church in the country.

Big, candid, Scotch-Irishman that he is, Dr. Brady has built up the Temple financially and numerically, and to-day he is the pastor of a flock of 1700.

Dr. Brady devotes himself with unflagging courage to any thing he undertakes. The chief characteristic of his character has been profound, in every sense, financial, commercial, and moral and spiritual growth. He is a man of plain, but vigorous words. So much has been said and written about Dr. Brady—his wife, his pastorate, his flock, his property, &c., &c., that it is power to a minister that the following letter from him will be convincing and helpful to many persons besides the large number who are every Sunday influenced for good by his powerful preaching.

Boston, Sept. 22, 1897.

Payne's celery compound, if widely and wisely used, would relieve nervousness, soothe restlessness, reduce sickness, strengthen the body, invigorate the mind, and add years of happiness to life.

JAMES BOYD BRADY,
Pastor People's Temple.

The man or woman who does not take time to get well will sooner or later have to take time to be ill.

Many live under the needless infliction of indigestion, nervousness, constipation, and general weakness, and endure the consequent loss of health without considering how easily the cause of all this illness might be remedied.

Payne's celery compound is a great tonic throughout the system. It gives a healthy tone to the stomach, increases the blood supply, quietes and equalizes the irritated nerve action and promptly feeds the tissues when the body is at its lowest ebb, and should be used for further tonics.

The only cure, therefore, for rheumatism, neuralgia or general debility that is lasting in its good effects must rest on a radical cleaning of the blood and a building up of the nervous system. This is done by the use of Payne's celery compound, because this is a safe and effective remedy.

Payne's celery compound need not be continued for any of these complaints, which are but really temporary maladies, whose cures are not permanent or thorough-going, and only bring delusive hope that make the heart sick. Payne's celery compound is the greatest nerve tonic and brain invigorator and most reliable blood purifier the world has ever been blessed with.

Persons from lack of nourishment, both may be supplied and a healthy condition insured by using Payne's celery compound.

The stay and staff of sound health is well maintained by well-regulated nerves. Before sleeplessness, nervous dyspepsia, or headache may be sure that every reservoir of nerve force has been tapped and exhausted by work, worry, too little sleep, or faulty nourishment, but when the nerves are well supplied and sustained as soon as signs of nervous exhaustion are noticed, shaky hands, broken sleep, poor appetite, wasting diseases, neuralgia or dyspepsia, take advantage of the remarkable properties, and the regaining action of Payne's celery compound.

Nervous disorders increase in a sort of compound ratio. It is a thousand times easier to put a nail to a horse's hoof in its earlier stages than later on to extract it and brain exhaustion, which may be complicated by heart, kidney or some other organic trouble.

Payne's celery compound need not be continued for any of these complaints, which are but really temporary maladies, whose cures are not permanent or thorough-going, and only bring delusive hope that make the heart sick. Payne's celery compound is the greatest nerve tonic and brain invigorator and most reliable blood purifier the world has ever been blessed with.

The Murray Ledger suggests Judge Jas. Breathitt as a Republican candidate for Governor and pays him this very neat compliment:

"This term of court ends Judge Breathitt's judicial career so far as Murray is concerned. During his short term on the bench Judge Breathitt has made a vast number of personal friends, though it is evident that many of them differ from him politically. He has won the regard of all persons with whom he comes in contact, and is a blood purifier, which has performed such stupendous cures in all cases of shattered constitution and depravity of the blood. Bad health signifies bad blood. Sold by R. C. Hardwick druggist, Hopkinsville, Ky."
